The Collectors & Their Collection: Bill and Vivian began collecting Rosemeade pottery about 25 years ago. Initially they were only interested in horse and chicken related items because they raised horses and chickens. But as is the case with most collectors, they soon were collecting anything Rosemeade. Trips and vacations almost always included stops at antique stores along the way. They have been long time members of the North Dakota Pottery Collectors Society and have made a lot of friends through their collecting. They made the decision nearly a year ago to sell their entire collection at auction. They hope you enjoy their collection as much as they did.

The Auction: The auction will begin at 9:00 AM each day (June 6 & 7). We intend to be done by noon on June 7 so that you can participate in the NDPCS convention. There will be a preview from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on June 5 and for approximately 1 hour prior to the start of the sale each day. A group of rooms have been reserved at $84.95 per night at the Grand International Inn (800-735-4493) under the North Dakota Pottery Collectors Society (NDPCS).

All items will be sold to the highest bidder. All items are sold as, where is. We have tried to note any damage or repairs but please rely on your own judgment when bidding. We will have a black light available at the sale for your use. We accept cash and checks, sorry no credit cards. We do accept absentee bids for those unable to attend the auction.

An itemized listing (arranged chronologically in the order in which it will be sold) and photos of many of the items are available at www.northstarauction.com. The catalog represents our best efforts and may contain some errors but we believe it is accurate for the most part.

North Dakota Pottery Collectors Society (NDPCS): The auction will be held just prior to the NDPCS annual meeting (June 7-9). The NDPCS annual meeting will also be held at the same location as our auction. We encourage you to become a member if you're not already a member to participate in the annual meeting as well. Membership provides you a network of experts and fosters an interest in all North Dakota pottery. Details about the annual meeting & membership can be found at www.ndpcs.org.
